Bodega Andrés Iniesta is a family-owned winery located in Fuentealbilla, Castilla-La Mancha, Spain. Founded by José Antonio Iniesta in the 1990s, the winery initially covered 10 hectares, but Andrés Iniesta helped expand it to over 400 hectares after joining FC Barcelona at 16. The winery produces high-quality wines exclusively from its own vineyards, blending traditional methods with modern technology. Its wines reflect the unique soil and climate of the region. Bodega Iniesta offers a variety of wines, which have earned international recognition and several awards.
